Introduction

This work was completed in the course of my own genealogical searchings. I was researching my mother's family and found that her grandfather was John Williams--a dreadfully common name. Further research indicated that his father as also John Williams and eventually I discovered that John's father John was also named John. That is to say I was searching for records of John Williams, son of John Williams, son of John Williams, all of whom lived most of their lives in Fayette County, Illinois. This is a genealogical nightmare. So I set down to search out all of the Williamses in Fayette County. A big job to be sure but one that bore fruit. I have now confirmed my John, John, John suspicions and have a ton of information.

In order for others to avoid the work that I had to do I have prepared this manuscript for publication. It includes every Williams (and Willms) that I have found to date (December 7, 2008) There are certainly more but I have done my best to be thorough. If you have corrections or additions I can be reached at:
